

JAMES HARE

PELHAM SILK

James Hare has always been the leading name in plains. Now the collection is extending still further – with the launch of Pelham Silk – a fresh, exciting new look in linen/silk.

Pelham's brand new palette offers thirty on-trend colours. New-generation brights with a playful edge sit stylishly alongside cool contemporary neutrals. The linen/silk mix unites two of nature's most luxurious materials, creating a fabric with special depth and intensity of colour.

The distinctive matt finish is complemented by a good handle which makes this collection ideal for curtains, blinds, cushions, lampshades and other decorative elements. It can also be used for wallcoverings, a special service offered by James Hare.

Pelham Silk plains co-ordinate with the patterns in the new Ashburn Silks collection being launched at the same time.
