CONNAUGHT SILK

CONNAUGHT SILK

New from James Hare, Connaught Silk unites two ultra-luxurious natural fibres: Silk and Merino wool to create a mid-weight fabric with an unique streamline drape and elegant presence.

Double faced, it has a slight twill weave on one side and a subtle satin finish on the other. The palette is contemporary/classic, with thirty colours including modern grey-based neutrals such as Lakestone, Mineral and Graphite and exciting accent shades such as Carmine, Bali and Jalapeno.

The ultimate sustainable fibre, wool is right back in fashion focus. James Hare's Connaught Silk combines all the natural characteristics of pure Merino with the glamorous sheen of silk – creating a smart and versatile new collection for today's interiors.
